

Minnesota
Pollution
Control
Agency

Notice of Nondiscrimination

Policy/General #5.02 • August 2009

The Minnesota Pollution Control Agency (MPCA) does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, disability, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, and status with regard to public assistance in the administration of its programs or activities, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

The MPCA has designated responsibility for coordination of compliance efforts and receipt of inquiries concerning discrimination requirements with respect to disparate and adverse impact, as implemented by 40 CFR Parts 5 and 7 to:

MPCA Non-discrimination Coordinator
Minnesota Pollution Control Agency
520 Lafayette Road North
St. Paul, MN 55155-4194
Phone: 651-296-6300
Toll free: 1-800-657-3864
TTY: 651-282-5332

The MPCA has adopted a grievance procedure with regard to civil rights. It is available at www.pca.state.mn.us/assistance/ej.html and by calling 651-296-6300.